

18 November 2002

To: FCC

Reference: 02-278

I implore you to please keep the current Indiana anti-solicitation law in effect. Prior to the enactment of this law my evening meal time with my family was continuously interrupted by phone solicitors. Since the enactment of this law my evenings have been quiet tranquil.

Please keep this law in place and help us to maintain peace and privacy in our homes.

James L. Baker